THE MYSTERY OF THE SHROUD OF TURIN: THE CASE FOR AUTHENTICITY

No cloth in history has been so studied as the Holy Shroud. Nor has any cloth so caught the fascination and reverence of the world. And still, this Linen remains a mystery. Is it the ancient burial cloth of Jesus, a Visual Gospel providing in its fabric the story of His passion and resurrection? What do modern blood and DNA studies reveal? Are there images of flowers and pollen on the Shroud that trace its history? What do pathologists say about the wounds and the weapons that created them? These questions as well as new scientific and historical evidence are discussed in this free 1 hour intriguing presentation supporting the authenticity of the Shroud presented with many colorful PowerPoint slides.

About the Presenter: John C. Iannone is a Catholic writer, lecturer and filmmaker who studied the Holy Shroud for 35 years since 1978. In 1998 he was invited by Cardinal Saldarini (then Shroud Custodian) to closely view the Shroud for an extended period. He published 3 books on the Shroud including “The Mystery of the Shroud of Turin: The Case for Authenticity” (2013) and done over 238 lectures at Churches of all denominations around the US, Canada and Rome. Having earned an MA at the Catholic University in Religious Studies, he did additional work at Fordham and Union Theological Seminary in NY. Mr. Iannone has done many radio broadcasts including a program on Vatican Radio as well as television programs on PBS and EWTN. jciannone@gmail.com
